

Computer Literacy Program 2012 Annual Report

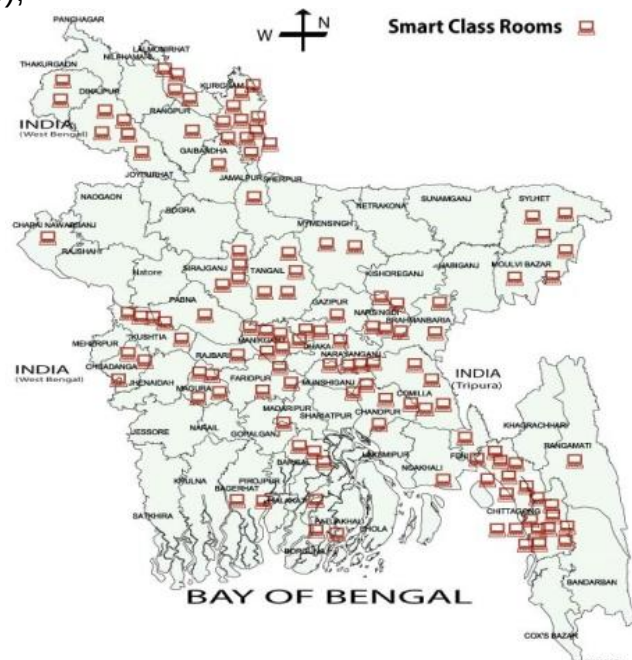

It is a pleasure to report to you the 2012 year-end status of the Computer Literacy Program (CLP). CLP was launched in late 2004 by the Volunteers Association for Bangladesh, New Jersey (VAB-NJ) to empower the underprivileged youths of rural Bangladesh through hands-on computer training and ICT-enhanced education. VAB, parent organization of VAB-NJ supports traditional educational programs to improve quality of education for the underprivileged youth in Bangladesh. With generous help and continuing support from donors and sponsors like you, VAB-NJ has attained considerable success:

- To date, CLP has established 225 Computer Literacy Centers (CLCs) in 57 of 64 districts of Bangladesh (over 1% of all schools now have CLCs). In addition, we established 92 Associate centers, bringing to a total of 317 centers where students are receiving computer literacy training free of charge.

- 70% of the CLCs are in rural areas.
- Teachers trained: 506 (18 % female);
- Students trained: Over 65,000 (48% female)

- Established a total of 120 Smart Class rooms (SCRs) in different regions of the country (see map).
- Multinational and Bangladeshi organizations, such as, British Council (Dhaka), Microsoft Asia, Intel, Bank Asia, Relief International, Sentrana Corporation, Standard Chartered Bank-Bangladesh; and philanthropic organizations, such

2012 Activities Highlights

- ❖ Established 57 new CLCs and 90 new SCRs.
- ❖ Provided internet connections to almost all CLCs.
- ❖ Trained 116 new CLC teachers (18% female) and 360 SCR teachers (11% female). 12,000 students received CLP course completion certification in first nine months of 2012.
- ❖ Developed multimedia contents for English and General Science for students of classes VI-VIII; and for Geography and Mathematics for students of classes IX-X.
- ❖ Hosted a lively Annual CLP Fund Raising event on July 14, 2012 at Rutgers Cook Campus Center, NJ, USA.
- ❖ Organized a send-the-message-out event, “Computer Literacy Program: Steps towards a Digital Bangladesh” at the Permanent Mission of Bangladesh to the UN in New York on April 1, 2012.
- ❖ Training cost ~ $6 per trainee and decreasing.
- ❖ VAB-NJ expects to evolve into Computer Literacy Program Volunteers for the Underprivileged (CLP) in 2013 for organizational and operational agility and simplicity.

VAB-NJ sincerely appreciates your support for the program to maintain the current level of activities. Your continued support and generous contributions are crucial to the overall success of the program. Please visit (www.vabonline.org/vabnj) for more detailed information on our program
